

Contest Rules:

- 1. Contestants construct and decorate their houses at home. Houses can be constructed with graham crackers or gingerbread (kits are a great shortcut and parents may only help construct structure).
- 2. The entire display cannot exceed 12"x15" (standard cookie sheet size) this includes the base.
- 3. The theme for 2025 is "Tis the Season to be Freezin'." It is not necessary to theme your entry to the festival, but it is an option if you would like.
- 4. All decorations on/or around the house must be edible
- 5. Drop off your entry at the Dalton Presbyterian Church on Friday, December 5th, 2025 between 4:30pm and 5:30pm. No late entries will be accepted.
- 6. Judging will be
 - a. Committee's Choice Overall appearance, creativity, and originality will be the criteria used.
 - b. Age Categories by public voting throughout the festival. Friday night will be at the church and Saturday/Sunday will be at Dalton High School.
- 7. Winner will be announced on Sunday, December 7th at 2:30pm.
- 8. Entry form must be filled out and turned in with Gingerbread House.
- 9. NOTE: Please pick up your gingerbread house at the end of the festival on Sunday. We cannot save any that are left at clean-up and they will be thrown out if not claimed, including base.

10. HAVE FUN!!!

